Assessments and Recommendations T 2

CPS Energy Preparations for Winter 2021-2022

commissioned system components during an energy emergency event. As a result, additional training programs have been identified to address these gaps going forward.

Lastly and likely most importantly from a riLasst m ti L